

Nottingham City NEU Newsletter

June General Meeting

This June our General Meeting is on Weds 27th 5pm at the Broadway in Hockley and we will be joined by guest speaker Nic Fitzpatrick (Barnsley) who will be speaking about academinisation and campaigning for a better deal. There will hot food and a few freebies, (you can never have enough stationary).

July Pride

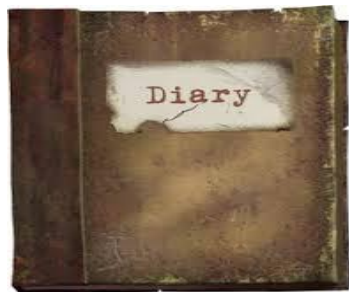

This July sees the first time that the NEU (NUT) has had a stall at this year's Pride. There will be goody bags to give away, people to chat to all things Pride and lots of fun to be had by all.

Women's Network

Women's network events are planned soon and to keep an eye out in future newsletters for dates.

Diary Dates

Tues 19th June Nottingham Stand up to Racism Open Meeting
Fri 22nd June International Solidarity Dinner
Sat 23rd - Sun 24th June Young Teachers Conference
Sat 23rd June Trans Educators Roundtable
Weds 27th June General Meeting
Thurs 26th July End of Term
Sat 28th July Nottingham Pride
Fri 31st Aug Start of New Academic Year
Thurs 27th Sept General Meeting

Nottingham Stand Up to Racism open meeting
Tuesday 19th June @ 7pm
International Community Centre
61b Mansfield Road
Nottingham

National Officer elections Ballot opens 20th June – closes 11th July

Vote for Alex KENNY and Louise REGAN

Standing up for education

“We are committed to building a member-led Union at every level. If elected we will work to harness the potential of every section of the NEU so that we make a real difference for our members and the communities we serve.”

Treasurer: Vote Alex KENNY 1
Membership & Equality: Vote Louise REGAN 1

Chris Gibbons is standing for the National Disciplinary and Appeals Committee. Chris is an experienced activist in the NUT and has been nominated by our division for this important post. The National Disciplinary Committee (NDC) and National Appeals Committee (NAC) have responsibility for dealing with cases of discipline of members of the Union.

Don't forget General Meeting
Weds 27th June
5pm @ Broadway
See you there

NEU Facebook /nationaleducationunion
website www.neu.org.uk

NEU Twitter @NEUnion

NEU